

New Year's Eve – on Zoom

7:30 – 10:40 p.m. Zazen

10:40 – 11:00 Reading the Precepts

11:00 – midnight – talk and refreshments

For a different kind of New Year's Eve, come sit with us. We'll sit 40-minute periods of zazen interspersed with 10 minutes of kinhin from 7:30 until 10:40 then read the Precepts. then spend the last hour of the year exchanging our hopes for 2021. Bring something to drink and some snacks and join in.

You're welcome to come when you can and leave when other commitments call. Many people like to sit a period or two before spending the rest of the evening in less quiet activities. Email us to get the link if you don't already have it.

New Year's Day – on Zoom

12:00 noon Zazen

12:45 New Year's ceremony

1:00 – 2:00 Drop-in time

We'll have zazen and a short ceremony to welcome the new year, followed by a chance to check in and say hello to other sangha members you may not have seen for awhile.

Children are welcome at the ceremony and the open house. Older children who aren't bored by sitting are also invited to zazen.
